OHIOANS CLAIM TVA LURES INDUSTRIES FROM THIS AREA

BY FRED J. ZUSY
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, May 7—Protests that cheap, "subsidized" Tennessee Valley Authority power is luring industry from Ohio and other states to the TVA area have been made to a house appropriations subcommittee.

The committee today made public testimony heard recently concerning TVA requests for operating funds in the year starting July 1.

Raymond T. Jackson, of Cleveland, counsel for the National Association of Electric Companies, told the committee:

"I happen to be a resident of Ohio. As far as citizens of Ohio are concerned, at least some of them, the situation is this:

Claim Subsidization
"We think that congress has created subsidized power in the Tennessee valley. We think that has taken industries there. We think that is unfair to us, who pay our own way, as well as pay taxes to contribute to the cost of TVA.

"The thing that lures" outside industries to the TVA area, Jackson said, is "that they can get subsidized power."

Rep. Gore (D-Tenn.), a TVA proponent, countered "it do not suppose there is any law in Ohio against one being misinformed."

After Jackson said "I have never found a law against that anywhere, congressman," Gore said that "we do not think our power rates in TVA subsidized."

Rep. Clevenger (R-Ohio), a member of the subcommittee; C. I. Weaver, president of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, and Philip P. Sporn, president of the American Gas and Electric Co., which is affiliated with the Ohio Power Co., and others in the so-called central system, also protested TVA competition.

Clevenger said that Ohioans, through taxes, pay about eight percent of the cost of such federal enterprises.

He said he "can well understand" why a plant operating in Ohio would find it "very advantageous" to move to the TVA area because no investment in a power plant would be required and there would be no amortization charges or depreciation for power equipment.

14-Year Old Boy Admits Killing Couple For Car

BRYAN, May 7—A 14-year-old Junior High school athlete signed a statement just before midnight last night admitting he shot and killed a 57-year-old couple because he wanted their automobile for a dance, Sheriff Norman A. Branes reported.

The sheriff identified the boy as Ervin Arthur Ingle, who played both football and basketball on Bryan Junior High school teams.

The youth was held today in Williams county jail without charge.

Sheriff Barnes said Ervin sobbed out the details of how he shot John Gabriel, a railway mail clerk, and his wife, Pearl, drove their automobile to a boy friend's house and hid the slaying weapon, a pistol, in his own home.

Retells His Story
Here's how Sheriff Barnes retold his story:

Ervin and another Junior High student wanted to go to a dance to be held tonight. Ervin promised his friend that he would "have a car for the dance."

He went to the Gabriels' home, entered, shot Gabriel with the pistol, pushed him down the basement stairs and forced Mrs. Gabriel to drive him to the country.

At the cemetery, he said, he told Mrs. Gabriel to stop the machine and get out. She stopped, handed young Ingle the keys and stepped to the ground.

Barnes said the youth then said he shot the woman through the head and drove away. He left the automobile at the friend's house, about three miles out of Bryan, and returned home.

His father, Keith F. Ingle, an employee of a milk company in Bryan, sat by his side throughout the lengthy recital, his face twitching with emotion.

The sheriff said he would turn the case over to the Williams county common pleas court.

The body of Mrs. Gabriel was found in a ditch adjoining a country cemetery by two women hunting mushrooms. Sheriff Barnes found Gabriel, critically wounded, in the basement of his home. Gabriel died at Cameron hospital in Bryan several hours later.

Barnes said the boy's father brought his son to the sheriff's office last night. He had learned of the Gabriels' automobile, which had been missing.

Said Car Given Him
The sheriff said Ervin first said the machine was given him by an unknown man, about 50, who drove Ervin to a country home and then gave him the car "to drive around for awhile."

He was unable, however, to locate the country home where the

Pleads for Housing

URGING LOW-RENT housing program extension, Public Housing Commissioner John T. Egan tells the House banking and currency committee the public housing program is an instrument well-fitted to aid in providing decent housing for low-income families who must otherwise live in slum dwellings. He testified on the Taft-Elliender-Wagner bill. (International)

President Truman has submitted the nominations of Lillenthal for a new five-year term and of his colleagues for periods ranging from four to one years. The atomic energy act calls for such staggered terms.

It was Taft who first promised a fight against this plan. He suggested 13-month extensions to July 1, 1949, when Republicans hope the White House will be occupied by one of their party.

Truman said shorter extensions than those he proposed would "cast a pall of uncertainty" over atomic programs.

Taft said today he would have no serious objection to the Hickenlooper-Johnson plan.

"If the committee votes for two years, I will be satisfied—I will go along," he told a reporter.

Senator McMahon (Conn.) top Democrat on the committee, has promised to fight any term-shortening amendment, saying the move would be playing politics with the whole program.

But Vandenberg said he thinks the 23-month extension would be the best way of handling the situation.

Rev. Molyneux expressed the opinion that too many professed Christians are playing at the job, and lack zeal for soul winning. "They are content to follow their little round of activities," he commented.

LILLENTHAL COMPROMISE GAINS GROUND

Senate Leaders Agree To Bill Extending Office For Two Years

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 7—Potent support lined up in the senate today behind a compromise proposal to extend the terms of David E. Lillenthal and other atomic energy commissioners for two years.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said he favors such an extension to avert an "unfortunate" controversy. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said he probably will go along.

Vandenberg, the senate's presiding officer and Taft, chairman of its GOP policy committee, were on opposite sides of last year's long and bitter battle over Lillenthal's confirmation. Vandenberg took a leading role in the successful fight for confirmation.

Chairman Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) of the senate-house atomic energy committee told a reporter he hopes to lay the compromise plan before the committee early next week.

Co-Authors of Bill
He and Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), also a committee member, are authors of a bill to extend the terms of the present five commissioners members from Aug. 1, 1948, to July 1, 1950.

President Truman has submitted the nominations of Lillenthal for a new five-year term and of his colleagues for periods ranging from four to one years. The atomic energy act calls for such staggered terms.

It was Taft who first promised a fight against this plan. He suggested 13-month extensions to July 1, 1949, when Republicans hope the White House will be occupied by one of their party.

Pick Charleston, W. Va., Man For Scout Executive Post

John T. Hartwell

John T. Hartwell, 34, of Charleston, W. Va., has been selected to serve as the scout executive of the Columbiana council, Boy Scouts of America, it was announced today by O. E. Hall, council president.

Hartwell has had 11 years in the professional service of scouting, serving as field executive and assistant executive in councils in West Virginia and in New Jersey. He will take up his duties in this county May 15.

Hartwell comes to Columbiana from an assistant executive position of a large council in Charleston, where he has helped with the organization of several new districts in which field executives have now been employed to give regular service. He succeeds Don R. Gay, who resigned to accept a position in Akron.

Hartwell was a scout in Newark, N. J., where he reached the rank of Eagle. He attended schools in Massachusetts and New Jersey, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Drew university.

He was first employed as a field executive, serving Fayette county, W. Va., in 1936. In Montclair, N. J., before his period of military service, he was field executive and assistant executive in a small council where his duties included serving as camp director and for a time as a specialist in Cubbing.

In the armed forces he was assigned to the 36th division, Co. F, 141 Infantry, and saw action in Italy, France, Germany and Austria. He is married and has one son and one daughter. He plans to make his home in Lisbon.

Hartwell will have the assistance of Eugene G. Russell, who came here from Seneca county Jan. 1 as field executive.

Steelman Meeting With Union, Rail Officials Today

WASHINGTON, May 7—President Truman went over the railroad crisis with his cabinet at an hour-long meeting today.

The cabinet conference concluded just as presidential assistant John R. Steelman began a meeting with heads of the three brotherhoods which have called a strike for next Tuesday. Steelman is seeking some way to head off the walkout.

Leaving the cabinet session, Attorney General Clark told reporters he advised the President in an opinion last week that he has ample power to seize the railroads—in event he decides that step is advisable.

At the same time, Clark emphasized that no orders looking to seizure have been prepared.

Clark said the seizure power is under a 1916 law.

Top presidential advisers insist that the President will consider seizure only as the last resort. He was said to be clinging to hope that representatives of the brotherhoods and of the carriers will reach an agreement.

Steelman Hopeful
Steelman, Truman's labor expert, talked yesterday with W. T. Farley, president of the Association of American Railroads.

Clark said he would see President Truman again this afternoon and ask permission to release the seizure power opinion to the public.

Prepared by the solicitor general's office, the opinion is based on a recent Supreme court decision that the United States is still technically at war.

Under this decision, Clark said, the President has the wartime authority to take over the railroads.

Steelman did not reveal whether there was any room for optimism after his talk with Farley.

Johnston, boarding a train at Cleveland last night for Washington conference, told reporters: "If the railroad people came in there with open minds we might get somewhere."

Johnston said he had no advance information that a settlement was in the wind.

Truman told his news conference that every effort is being made to head off the threatened strike, scheduled to begin at 6 a. m. local time, across the nation next Tuesday.

But Truman flatly denied that the Office of Defense Transportation had been alerted to prepare for possible seizure.

Britain's Plight

One of the reasons for Britain's plight today is that she knew how to build industries but did little about keeping them up to date. Long before World War II it was evident that cartels, sterling blocks and empire preferences couldn't alter the fact that British industry wasn't plowing back enough profits.

In a pamphlet titled "Technological Stagnation in Great Britain," Prof. George Terborgh, research director of the Machinery & Allied Products Institute, says: "We have seen some of Britain's chief industries operating with mechanical antiquities and outmoded production methods. We have seen both management and labor obsessed with a passion for security and 'stability,' reflected, on the one side, in combinations in restraint of competition, and on the other in featherbedding and resistance to mechanization. We have seen a tax system inimical to enterprise and adventure . . . we have seen, finally, the logical sequel, or at least its beginnings, the intervention of the state."

Complacency never has been an affliction of American industry. Competition has been stiff, and to keep in the race most American industries have put billions of profits and venture capital in new plant and equipment.

This need for constant renovation and expansion is so little understood that the net profits of industry are fair game for any politician or labor leader who points to them and calls for a melon splitting. President Truman recently proposed an income tax reduction without loss of revenue by levying a higher "surplus profits" tax.

The belief that all surpluses are made for redistribution in the form of lower prices, higher wages and heavier taxes is a dangerous fallacy. A substantial portion of the industrial plant's profits have to be turned back to renew itself. Otherwise it will clank along at a progressively slower rate with a progressively smaller yield.

Another Boost For Oleo

Decision of the senate to refer the federal margarine tax repealer to the finance instead of the agricultural committee augurs well for its passage in the near future. While the tax is more a control measure than a revenue producer, the senate voted as it did rather than run the risk of having the bill pigeon holed in the agricultural committee.

The geographical composition of the 13-member finance committee indicates that seven members probably will favor repealing the tax, two will be opposed and four in doubt.

When the measure comes to a vote on the senate floor, it will pose a greater dilemma to some senators than it did in the lower house. Most congressional districts are likely to be either predominantly rural or urban, or else dairy or soybean areas. But many a senator comes from a state in which both sides have considerable strength. Nevertheless, the 47 to 30 margin by which the bill was sent to the finance committee is a fair sign that a majority will vote to repeal oleo restrictions.

The Rail Strike Threat

As the Tuesday deadline for a national railroad strike approaches, the federal government is exploring last-resort ways to avert a walkout.

The short-lived but costly 1946 strike was broken when the government, under the National Defense act passed in 1916 when war was imminent, seized the roads and threatened to draft the strikers. Since the war still hasn't been declared officially ended, it is considering similar action now.

Such a measure, however, would be only a stop-gap device and one that can't be invoked through the years.

The Railway Labor Act of 1926 was efficient for 20 years, protecting the public from unreasonable demands by both management and labor. The act would still be efficient if labor were prepared to accept the findings of impartial mediators.

As things stand, the unions have completed all the statutory requirements of the law and no legal obstacles stand in the way of a strike. So now the matter comes down to the right of the railroads to strike versus the right of the public to exist. The national economy cannot function without the railroads.

In this connection Senator Ball has called into session the so-called "Watch-dog" committee on the Taft-Hartley act to consider the possibility of bringing railroads within the purview of its provisions for anti-strike injunctions where public health or safety is imperiled. Whether the answer is to be found there or in some form of compulsory arbitration, the nation cannot be subject to recurrent rail strike threats.

No Time To Waste

One more thing about the primary this year will bear comment before the subject is closed and stored away among the politicians' souvenirs.

Throughout the state there was a good turnout. Party members were interested in the contests between Senator Taft and Harold Stassen and Frank J. Lausche and Ray Miller. This was advantageous to other party members seeking nominations. There was a heavy vote.

Worrying about the decline of interest in primaries has become habitual. Newspapers implore voters to go to the polls to exercise their franchise, yet realize that exercising the franchise to decide a useless contest between twiddle-dum and twiddle-dee doesn't make sense.

Voters have no time to waste on contests that don't interest them. The trouble is not with them but with a kind of politics that gets so cut-and-dried it loses the sense of participation which is the means of keeping popular government alive. Whenever the direct primary needs a stimulant, to bring out the vote, the job can be done by the simplest of all political expedients—a contest in which a simple and informed citizenry can take sides and help decide public issues.

Too Solemn For Cynics

The third anniversary of V-E day finds the cynics having things pretty much their way . . . World War II shouldn't have been fought . . . Russia threatens to be worse than Germany . . . The United States clinched its hold on the all-time sucker championship . . . nobody won . . . everybody lost.

The third anniversary of V-E day is too solemn for cynics to be permitted to desecrate it with bitter second-guesses—which are, incidentally, subject to equally bitter third-guesses by other cynics. The United States fought in World War II because it had no other honorable choice; it was attacked. It fought successfully because it believed there was not room in a civilized world for the murderous euk led by Adolf Hitler; there was nothing cynical about the will to win in the hearts of Americans, least of all in the hearts of the fighting men who upheld the American cause. Many of them died and gave up all chance of normal, healthful lives because they believed victory was worth any sacrifice. Let not the cynics sneer at them, nor at their survivors because the victory they won sometimes has seemed less than glorious. That is a matter which history must judge.

The judgments of history are founded on provable fact, not the sour surmises of cynics turned peevish because events turned out below their specifications for perfection. Would the cynics be happier in 1948 if Hitler were still riding roughshod over the dignity of mankind?

The Stars Say

BY GENEVIEVE KEMBLE
For Saturday, May 8

The lunar transits ruling on this day point to the advisability of making it a time of relaxation and diversion, since there is but little encouragement of furthering anything of an ambitious or constructive nature. Working along lines of least resistance is the formula in such static or congested state of affairs. Postpone, take it easy, ease for the physical, would be a sounder investment than trying to force lagging or blocked issues.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may find things moving along at a snail's pace, with obstacles, frustrations, delays and lack of making the grade no matter what the investment of effort, vitality and resources.

The inertia or stagnation in affairs might be attributable to lowered physical energies or initiative to slow mental processes or to the general static and retrograde aspect of affairs at large.

A child born on this day may be serious, slow going, indispensed to overcome obstacles or to tackle the affairs of life with any show of energy or determination. It may see the world through the eyes of an introvert.

Guarding Your Health

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
WE are all familiar with the type of birthmark which appears as a red blotch on the skin. Known as hemangiomas, these birthmarks consist of dilated blood vessels within the skin and tissues immediately beneath it.

Formerly, a child born with such a mark on the face or neck was to be pitied because there was nothing which could be done to remove it, but today only one variety of hemangioma seems to resist treatment; nearly all the others can be reduced to nothing more than a faint pink bluish if treatment is begun early enough.

Least Common

Fortunately, the one which is most difficult to deal with is also the least common. This is the so-called port wine stain which is caused by a network of enlarged capillaries, the tiniest of the body's blood vessels. As a rule skin-thickening or tumor growth is not associated with this type of birthmark.

The mark is red to purple in color and may become slightly darker when the baby cries or strains, but pressure over the involved skin does not cause it to pale.

Treatment with radium or X-ray may lighten the mark a little but will not eliminate it completely. Today, however, there are good creams and pastes which can be used to camouflage the mark completely. Parents should be instructed to begin their use early in the child's life so that he will escape the emotional injury which comes from curious stares or the taunts of his playmates.

The second variety of hemangioma is called the strawberry mark. This is made up of blood vessels larger than capillaries and shows a local tumor growth. It tends to increase in thickness and becomes darker when the baby cries or strains. The mark flattens out or blanches on pressure.

The third type is called the cavernous hemangioma, and is made up of larger blood vessels in the tissues under the skin. The mark may be seen faintly through the skin as blue streaks. This mark may often be combined with the strawberry mark.

These other types of hemangioma should be treated as soon as discovered. Since most of these marks are visible at birth, the first treatment should be given before the infant leaves the hospital. X-ray treatments seem to give the most satisfactory results for the majority of cases. There are many birthmarks which can be virtually obliterated in three treatments if the treatments are started within the first month of life. In some instances radium is used instead of X-ray. This is a question for the doctor to decide and it must always be remembered that some hemangiomas are not checked by either form of radiation, but must be injected in the same way as varicose or dilated veins and then, like them, removed surgically.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
A. E.: Is it possible for a person to catch an itch from a dog?
Answer: The so-called itch usually refers to scabies, a condition caused by a tiny parasite. Insofar as I am aware, this condition is not contracted from animals.

CHURCHILL'S PLEA IS FOR WORLD GROUPS

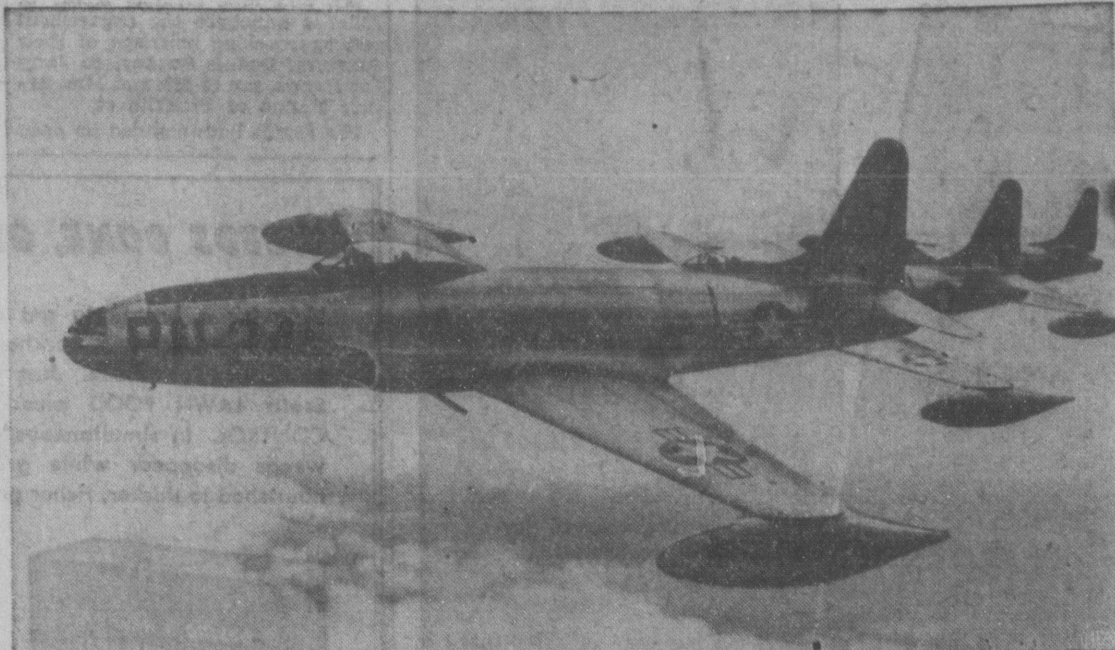

Outlines Need For Three Regional Groups Under Future Government

(By Associated Press)
THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, May 7.—Winston Churchill urged today immediate formation of a European assembly as the first step toward a council of Europe free of the jealousies and rivalries of the past.
Churchill asked members of a 22-nation forum to plead with their governments to "create a new Europe" whose united voice can be continuously heard.
The new council of Europe should be a subordinate but necessary part of the world organization, Churchill said in his prepared text. The organization of the future, he said, should have three "august" subordinate regional councils: The Soviet Union.
The council of Europe, including Great Britain, joined with her empire and commonwealth.
The Western Hemisphere.
Britain's wartime leader said the East is gripped and perplexed by the attitude of the Soviet Union, without whose active aid the world organization cannot function, nor the shadow of war be lifted from the hearts and minds of men and nations.
A resolution is before the meeting to create a "European deliberative assembly through which views could be exchanged and a common European opinion expressed on problems of the day." The meeting also is asked to create an emergency council to direct joint action for economic recovery and military defense to "preserve Democratic freedom."
Churchill is honorary chairman of the meeting.

Arm Price Drop Seen By Anderson

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson says arm prices probably will decline a third in the next few years even under favorable conditions.
He said they still would be at a level after such a decline.
If conditions are unfavorable, he said, farmers might experience at least a repetition of 1920-21 when arm prices dropped 50 percent in 12 months.
"However, we do not need to go through the wringer again," the cabinet officer said. "We must maintain both domestic and foreign policies that will prevent it."
Anderson gave his price prospect in a talk prepared for delivery at the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Whitacre Wed Thursday In Church To Donald Bixby

Miss Evelyn Jean Whitacre selected a handsome costume of white tulle and lace for her wedding when she was married to Donald L. Bixby at 8 p. m. Thursday in the Nazarene church.

Her gown was designed with a fitted bodice, trimmed in ruffles, high neckline, long tight sleeves, and a full skirt entrain. Completing her costume she wore a net lace trimmed finger-tip veil held in place by orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses tied with wide white ribbon and was given in marriage by her father, Neale Leonhart.

Mrs. Byron Munsell, cousin of the bride, matron of honor, was gowned in blue tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with matching ribbon, while Miss Anna Ruth Circle, bridesmaid, appeared in a gown of pink tulle and net and carried yellow roses tied with matching ribbon.

Fred Bixby of East Palestine, uncle of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Gene Hanna and Virgil Kelly.

White candles in two sets of tall seven-branch candelabra lighted the altar, which was artistically banked with ferns and palms.

Miss Alice Jean Shoff played the wedding melodies and accompanied Miss Jean Thorne, who sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Rev. E. M. Parks, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Leonhart, mother of the bride, wore a becoming brown sheer print, using brown and white accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride gave her attendants strands of pearl beads, while the groom presented the best man and ushers with the sets.

The bride attended Salem High and is employed by the Gem Clay Co., Sebring.

Mr. Bixby, son of Rev. James Bixby of Chicago, graduated from Salem High school. A press operator, he is employed by the Mullins Mfg. Corp.

After a honeymoon trip, the couple will reside on the Salem-Washingtonville rd.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bixby of East Palestine, grandparents of the groom, and an aunt, Miss Anna Haldeman, and a brother, James, of Cumasus.

Sorority Seats New Officers

Miss Eleanor Williams, retiring president, inducted the new officers of Xi Psi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, at a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Martin Lee Roth, Newgarden st.

They are: President, Mrs. W. C. Ferrall; vice president, Mrs. Dale Wilson; secretary, Mrs. John Holzwarth; treasurer, Miss Mary Elizabeth O'Neil; assistant secretary, Mrs. William Luce.

Mrs. Ferrall announced her committees for the year as follows: Program—Mrs. Wilson, chairman; Mrs. O. A. Naragon, Mrs. A. W. Lieder and Miss Mary Shriver.

Social—Mrs. Curtis Vaughan, chairman; Mrs. J. C. Pottorf, Miss Carmen McNeil, Mrs. Carl McQuillan and Miss Williams.

Ways and Means—Mrs. Charles Bogar, chairman; Mrs. Roth and Mrs. S. A. Moore; publicity, Mrs. Luce and Mrs. Rex Hundertmark.

The program was on "Palestine" and at roll call the members responded with an item relating to the theme. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Preceding this meeting 11 members enjoyed a formal Founders day dinner at Wee Farm. The table was made attractive with a center arrangement of flowers.

Miss Mary Shriver will be hostess at the May 20 meeting in the public library.

Haviland Choir Enjoys Dinner

Robert Wentz led the discussion on the choir merit system at the dinner meeting of the Presbyterian Haviland choir Wednesday evening in the church.

Forty enjoyed the dinner, with Ted Stewart, president, presiding at the business session.

Miss Dora Laughlin, Kathryn Giffin, Mrs. Robert Lieder and Miss Elizabeth Dales presented the humorous skit, "Little Nell."

Baby's 'New Look'

French influence on baby's Spring fashions is evident in the extravagant yardage, fine fabrics and elegant trappings. Ruffles and bands of imported Val lace are delicate frosting for the net-covered white crepe saque and bonnet set shown on the baby, center above. The tiny fashion-plate, right, models a "midgie" frock of pink organdy which has a shirred yoke, bouffant skirt, and bow-tied sash. Lace edges the neckline, sleeves and sash ends. A dainty white batiste collar and a deep hemline are fashion features of the pastel blue chambray dress worn by the older tot at left. Skirt fullness is released from a smocked yoke.

Mr. And Mrs. Tate Married 50 Years, Plan Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Tate of 1218 Cleveland st., will receive friends and relatives at an "open house" reception from 2 to 5:30 p. m. Sunday in their home in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Estella Allison and Fred J. Tate were united in marriage on May 10, 1898, in Derry, Pa., and came to Salem to make their home in June, 1912.

They have two daughters, Mrs. William T. McKee of Mansfield, and Miss Mildred E. Tate, at home, William F. McKee, a freshman at Mt. Union college, is a grandson.

They are members of the Presbyterian church and Mrs. Tate belongs to the Eastern Stars. Mr. Tate is a retired machinist, having been employed at the Laming plant for 34 years.

Rustic Bridge Built At Girl Scout Camp; Play Day Arranged

Work has been completed on the rustic bridge over the stream at Camp Merrydale, Salem Girl Scout reservation, Seacrest rd., Camp Chairman Mrs. Vaughn Nichols reported to members of the board of directors of Salem Girl Scout council Thursday in the Memorial building.

Mrs. Robert Watterson, chairman, outlined the Play day program which is set for 1 to 3 p. m. Saturday at Reddy field. Members of the board are invited to sit in the reviewing stand.

Parents of the girls are invited. The cookie sale, in charge of Mrs. Leroy Bates, netted $304. This money will be used for camp improvement.

May 15 and 22 have been designated as camp cleanup days. Parents of the girls will assist with this work.

To March In Parade

The girls will participate in the Memorial day parade, with arrangements in charge of Mrs. James Gregg, chairman of public relations. Mrs. Walter Schuck was presented as the new cookie and calendar chairman.

Mrs. Schuck and Mrs. John King are in charge of the purchase and planning of a layette to be contributed by the board to the clothes kit drive. This is an overseas project.

Student Nurses Hold Dance At Temple

The May day dance, sponsored by Freshmen nurses of Salem City hospital entertained some 120 members and friends Saturday evening in the Masonic temple.

The semi-formal affair included guests from Youngstown, Lisbon and Leetonia. Music was by Johnny Masters orchestra.

Lilacs, dogwood and arrangements of palms made a springtime setting for dancing, while the linen laid refreshment table, centered with a punch bowl, was flanked with bouquets of red roses and white candles. Yellow tea roses also were used effectively.

Lavender and white, the class colors, were used in the attractive programs.

Helen Chitila, Jerry Werner, Donna Jean Craig and Lois Ann Pearson, assisted by the members of the class, were in charge of the decorations.

Ella B. Stoneman is president of the Freshman class of which there are 15 members.

Other officers are: Vice president, Elaine Abe; secretary-treasurer, Alice Galchick. Mrs. Donald Dean

AT LEAST NINE MISS ASSEMBLY BID

Nine In House and Senate At Columbus Lose Out In Primary Runs

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, May 7.—Incomplete returns from Tuesday's primary showed today that at least nine members of Ohio's legislature failed to win renomination.

Paul L. McCormick of Huntsville, house majority leader, was the major casualty. He was voted out by 24 votes by Roger Cloud, Logan county commissioner. A recount was considered likely.

Six other Republican members of the house also were defeated—C. F. Sharp of Vinton county, James L. Black of Miami, Claude Woodward of Montgomery, Harold Marts of Warren, Emerson C. Wagner of Perry, and John M. Kerr of Columbiana.

Two Out By Law
Two Republican senators were eliminated under the new election laws. J. E. Baker, Phillipsburg, defeated William Tyrell Eaton, for the third district nomination. Both now are senators, but the district will have only one senator in the 98th assembly. Under a similar situation in the 24th district (Toledo), Sen. Raymond E. Hildebrand defeated Sen. Virgil P. Cramer.

The closest race of the primary came in the 25th district (Cleveland) senate campaign among the Democrats. Frank S. Day defeated William M. Boyd by one vote, 36,436 to 36,435. Cleveland nominated six for the senate on each ticket.

A total of 517 candidates sought nomination to 168 house seats; 107 bid for 33 senate seats. There were 277 Republicans and 240 Democrats in house races; 44 Republicans and 63 Democrats in senate contests.

Among those winning renomination were Senate Republican Leader Frank E. Whittemore of Akron and House Democratic Leader John P. Cantwell of Youngstown.

Fifteen candidates, including House Speaker William O'Neill, Marietta Republican, will win election Nov. 3 through lack of opposition. Republican incumbents besides O'Neill who are assured of reelection are:

William Saxbe, Champaign county; Sam B. Nicely, Clinton; Kenneth F. Berry, Coshocton; Harold F. Stotzer, Fulton; E. C. Wiscup, Highland; Elton Kile, Madison; J. Wesley Masters, Morrow; H. E. Louisa, Pickaway; Ray C. Carpenter, Seneca; Clifton L. Caryl, Union; Harry D. Bellis, Van Wert; Virgil Perrelli, Fayette.

Democrats assured of re-election are Roy E. Harmony of Shelby county and Paul Hinkle of Mercer.

Christian Church Crusade Opened

Dr. Franklin Minck, pastor of the High Street church in Akron, used "Disciples of Christ" as his theme when he spoke Wednesday evening at the Crusaders dinner sponsored by the Gold Star class, in the Christian church.

The speaker explained the Crusade For a Christian World, which has as its goal 500,000 Christian homes within the next two years. This program is being inaugurated in Christian churches throughout the United States, emphasizing stewardship.

Following the dinner, a program was enjoyed by 120 people. Lucy Huston, accompanied by Shirley Baldinger, played "Rigoletto" as a clarinet solo; Gerry Van Hoval and Betty Ross played "Hungarian Dance" for a piano duet; Clever imitation of Al Jolson was given by Robert Zimmerman who sang "Me and My Shadow" and "Mammy." Ben Bailey accompanied him. Peggy Pritchard, with Mrs. Ruth Berry at the piano, sang "Love Old Sweet Song" and "Little Brown Bird."

The women of the class were in charge of decorations, while the men served on the kitchen committee.

Man Confesses Fatal Beating of Wife, 19

NEW PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Tuscarawas County Prosecutor Vernon Lee said today that Roy Baker, 22, has signed a confession that he fatally beat his 19-year-old wife in their home here the night of April 9.

Mrs. Roxie Baker died in a hospital here April 16 without gaining consciousness. Shortly afterward, Paul Cash, 33, Dover boxing promoter, was arrested and charged with second degree murder in the death. Baker had been held as a material witness.

County officials said the case against both men will be presented to the grand jury tomorrow.

Cash has maintained he called the Baker home to offer employment to Baker and the young wife answered the phone and told him of falling down the stairs. Cash said he notified Baker, a millworker, reportedly was at work at the time.

COLUMBIANA CLUB PLANS ACTIVITIES

Boosters Meet Next Thursday To Plan Summer Sports Program

COLUMBIANA, May 7—A program of summer sports will be planned at a meeting of the Booster club called for next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock by President Ramsey. The meeting will be held in Pavilion 2, Firestone park. High School Coach Jack Cramb, who will co-operate with the Boosters, has taken steps toward the organization of the softball league and evening games at Firestone park. He has called a meeting for next Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the High School building of managers of softball teams last year, managers of other teams that may desire to join the league, and all persons interested.

Cub Scout Pack 17 will meet at the high school grounds Saturday morning at 8:30 for a trip to the McKinley scout reservation if the weather permits. Each scout is to take his own lunch. They will return home shortly after noon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Todd and daughter, Sarah, were in Baltimore the first of the week visiting their son and brother, Staff Sergeant Robert Todd, at Camp Holabird and Mr. Todd's brother, Marion, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Todd also attended a farewell dinner at the Alliance Country club in honor of Charles Wilson of East Palestine, who is retiring from his duties with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Lodge To Have May Party

Post Noble Grands club of Panthers Rebekah lodge will have its annual May party Monday evening at 8:30 at O. F. hall. Dinner will be served at 6:30 by officers of the club and the committee, Norine Allenkopf, Oneta Orr, Bertha Corbin, Janet Reinher, Goldie Phillips and Daisy Brinker. Entertainment will follow.

Mrs. Maurice Michaud of Columbiana is in the cast of the last production of the season at the Youngstown Playhouse, which will open Friday evening for run of ten evenings, concluding Sunday evening, May 16. The title of the play is "You Don't Take It With You."

COPELEY STUDENTS CALL OFF STRIKE

(By Associated Press) AKRON, May 7—Striking high school students at nearby Copley agreed to return to classes today after return for possible further study the firing of their principal.

Lloyd Sir Louis, a member of the community's school board, said the board had agreed to consider at next meeting a plan for studying the case of former Principal Frank Weiss.

About two thirds of the school's 30 pupils failed to report for classes Tuesday after Weiss' contract was not renewed. School Supt. R. Malone said the school action was taken because he "lacked leadership."

Under the settlement plan, a nine-member committee would be appointed to decide if Weiss' ousting was justified.

The agreement was announced Tuesday night at a school meeting attended by some 400 teachers, pupils and parents.

A taxpayer's suit was filed in common pleas court yesterday asking that Malone's salary be stopped grounds the school board since it had not had authority to hire superintendent.

The suit was entered by Mrs. Alma M. Malone, mother of one of the school pupils.

Gen. and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower are welcomed to their new New York home, the official residence of the president of Columbia University, by one of their new neighbors, Tommy-gun totin' 9-year-old David Syrett. The boy is the son of a Columbia professor of American history. The general will take up his new duties June 7. Meanwhile he will continue work on his war memoirs.

Eugene Hanhart To Be Democrat Head

(By Associated Press) COLUMBUS, May 7—The next Democratic state chairman probably will be Eugene H. Hanhart of Dover.

Hanhart's selection as state chairman appeared virtually certain with the nomination of former Gov. Frank J. Lausche for a second term as governor in Tuesday's primary.

He would replace Albert A. Horstman of Dayton. Horstman, it is understood, will not be a candidate for re-election.

Hanhart has been closely affiliated with Lausche beginning with his first term as governor, and he was active in the former governor's recent primary campaign.

Hanhart now is state central committeeman from the 16th district. Both Democratic and Republican state central committees must meet within 15 days after the primary—or on or before May 19.

Horstman said in Dayton last night that dates for the Democratic committee meeting cannot be set until the secretary of state certifies the candidates as elected. He said he expected to know today or tomorrow.

Republican State Chairman Fred H. Johnson of Zanesville is expected to be re-elected when the new GOP state central committee meets.

with Mrs. Harold Babb at the piano. Dinner Is Served

Dinner was served in the dining room at tables set in the form of a cross and beautifully appointed in a black and white motif. In the center was a white cross in an arrangement of evergreen. The tall white tapers were in crystal holders. Places were arranged for 70.

Commander Mountford was toastmaster for the after dinner program, which included a group of vocal solos, "Morning," "The False Prophet" and "The Lilac Tree" by Miss Gels, accompanied by Mrs. Babb, and an entertaining talk by Rev. Molyneux on the theme, "If I Were A Night Templar."

The pastor stressed the thought that to be a good advertisement for an organization one must practice its ideals and in this way help to lift the morals of the community and make it a better place to live. "Deeds count for more than words," he said.

This service, always a highlight of the year, was arranged by Harold Babb, generalissimo, and Fred Bryson. The dinner was served by members of the Eastern Star.

YOUNGSTOWN CUTS CITY DEPARTMENTS

Police, Firemen Laid Off Following Levy Defeat At Polls

(By Associated Press) YOUNGSTOWN, May 7—In the wake of the defeat of a 2.5 mill levy for operation funds at the polls last Tuesday, Mayor Charles P. Henderson's administration today ordered 133 city workers laid off, including 53 policemen, 49 firemen, laborers and others, and called for a reduction in park and recreation expenses.

Needing a 60 percent vote, the levy proposal got slightly less than a 50 percent count, despite previous warnings by Mayor Henderson that the city would have to cut costs to meet a half-million dollar deficit if the levy was not approved.

The labor force in the garbage collection and disposal division is pared about half, and plans are being made to retrench in operations of park and recreation swimming pools and baseball fields.

The mayor will ask that street lighting be reduced 50 per cent to save about $40,300 on the city's annual light bill. This curtailment, however, is subject to approval by the Ohio Edison Co., which has a contract with the city.

Cut in the fire department ranks will mean the closing of five fire stations in the city. Stations will be locked and fire trucks stored.

PIGEON BACK HOME AFTER NINE YEARS

CLEVELAND, May 7—After nine years, one of Frank S. Wellman's pigeons has returned from the 100-mile race it started back in 1939.

Appearing well fed, the check-colored bird landed on the loft and promptly slipped inside to take its accustomed perch.

Wellman said the pigeon started the race 100 miles from Cleveland, but was unable to remember the exact point.

"Not many birds come back after nine years," he commented. "But they do have remarkable memories. This bird either became lost or has been penned up."

Pigeons live to about 15 years old.

State Employee, Former Alliance Man, Dies

COLUMBUS, May 7—John A. Todd, 53-year-old benefits chief of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment compensation, died yesterday at his Columbus home. He was a native of Alliance, O., and a graduate of Akron university. He was an Akron insurance agent before coming to BUC nine years ago.

Tabor) traditional site of Christ's transfiguration.

Haganah said two Jews were killed and nine wounded and 20 Arabs were left dead in Sejera, and two other Jews died and 16 were wounded in the attack on Arab El Edha, where Arab losses were believed high.

In Tel Aviv, Haganah said without confirmation that Lebanese troops shelled the Jewish settlement of Ramat Nafail in Northern Palestine before dawn yesterday. Newspapers there said Jews holding Yehudia near Lydda airport, beat off a counterattack by four armored vehicles of the Trans-Jordan Arab legion, part of which is in Palestine to help the British in police work.

WASHINGTON, May 7—Beset by a long series of setbacks, the American effort to end the bloodshed in Palestine today approached a crucial deadline with little apparent chance for success.

President Truman himself stressed that the effort is continuing in every possible way. But other officials noted that the British are due to surrender their mandate over the Holy Land at the end of next week and an increase in Arab-Jewish warfare is widely feared at that time.

The Palestine situation, in fact, is the center of current official concern here and over unsettled conditions in various parts of the world.

Truman's news conference comment yesterday that the United States is continuing to do all it possibly can was occasioned by the report of a new Jewish and Arab rebuff to the latest American peace-making attempt.

New York City against five bus companies, which would have affected more than 1,500,000 daily riders, was averted a few hours before the strike deadline when CIO transit workers were granted wage increases of 24 cents an hour; similar pay hikes had dissolved threatened work stoppages by a sixth private transit company and by some 40,000 workers on city-owned lines.

Aviation — The Boeing Airplane Company rejected a federal conciliator's invitation to collective bargaining negotiations with present representatives of its 14,500 striking workers. The company president said the walkout by the International Association of Machinists violated the existing contract.

OBERLIN'S MOCK CONVENTION OPENS

Republican Party Meeting Emulated In Two Day College Program

(By Associated Press)
OBERLIN, May 7—Oberlin college's traditional mock Republican convention opens today for two days of intensive debate on a platform and a pair of nominees.
Starting with the choice of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, the convention's presidential nominee has been duplicated by the Republican party nine times since.
Sessions of the convention duplicate the meetings of the national party. Organization of state delegations, lobby pressure groups, behind-the-scenes deals, and exuberant demonstrations combine to produce a realistic replica. At least 1,200 spectators are expected for this 22nd session.

Debate Platform

Tonight delegates will begin debate over a 12-plank, 4,000-word platform. Controversy is expected over planks which defend the Taft-Hartley act, oppose federal aid to education and oppose universal military training.

Tomorrow night's session will nominate the presidential and vice-presidential candidates. At least 16 candidates are expected to be in the running for President, including Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, Harold E. Stassen, Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who have shown strength in that order in school polls.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey will serve as keynote and temporary chairman of the convention. Sen. Irving Ives of New York will take over as permanent chairman of tomorrow's session.

The week-end proceedings are touched off today by a mile and a half parade. The parade will be headed by a pair of elephants and will include floats entered by 32 delegations, marching bands from nine high schools in Oberlin, Elyria, Lakewood and Mansfield, and will be covered by a blanket of 12 AT-4 trainer planes from the air force base in Cleveland.

Second Marines Go Overseas Once More

NEW YORK—The Second Marine Division — the Leatherneck unit which has just supplied troops and replacements to the aircraft carrier Midway and the cruisers Portmouth, Providence and Little Rock in the Mediterranean, is celebrating its seventh birthday on Sunday, Feb. 1.

Officially activated in 1941, this Marine division was given the mission of defending the California coast from Oceanside to the Mexican border, while training for Pacific combat.

It was not until the battle for Tarawa, Nov. 20, 1943, that the division fought as a complete unit, although small numbers of the organization fought earlier on Guadalcanal, Saipan, June 14, and Tinian, July 24, 1944, were next for the Second Division. Then came the landing on Okinawa in April of 1945, and finally the occupation of Japan, beginning Aug. 29 of that same year.

Today, with an eye for the possibility of atomic warfare, the division has assumed a complete new formation. It is a more mobile and flexible fighting force. With the elimination of the old infantry regiments and the addition of more infantry battalions, each capable of independent action, the organization has a much greater dispersal and still can operate efficiently with decentralized control.

16,000 Mice and Man's Fight Against Cancer

A Pampered 35-Cent Rodent May Be Man's Best Friend In New Research For Chemical To Halt Dread Disease

Pictures and Text
By ARTHUR RICKERBY
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—Sixteen thousand mice squeak contentedly in their air-conditioned tower high over Manhattan — invited house guests in one of the big city's newest sky-scrapers.

Munching sunflower seeds and a specially prepared vitamin-filled diet, they enjoy hospitality at its best as white-clad technicians move softly about catering to their comforts.

Any one of these 16,000 mice, worth 35 cents apiece, may hold the answer to a cure for dreaded cancer.

They are the key to vital experiments in the search for a chemical cure for cancer at the new 14-story Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research. In the spotless laboratories of the modernistic, $4,500,000 building, more than 500 mice each week undergo Chemotherapy — an attempt to destroy cancer cells through injection of chemical compounds.

In Chemotherapy, scientists hope to find the weapon to combat some of the forms of cancer which cannot be controlled permanently by traditional methods of surgery and radiation, such as leukemia, which is cancer of the blood-forming tissue.

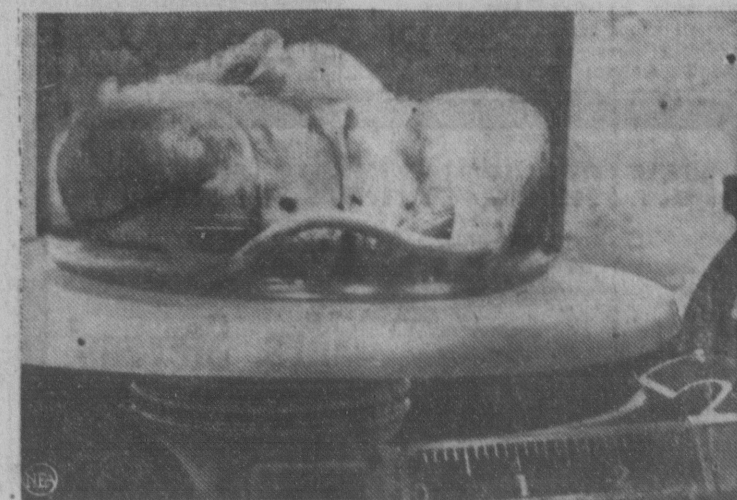

Research has shown that there are certain chemical compounds which, in the test tube, kill cancer cells while allowing normal cells to live.

These have proved ineffective outside the test tube, but the knowledge of their existence has spurred scientists to look for other chemicals which will control cancer in the human body.

Experiments with chemical compounds of unknown effect begin with the mice and, if successful, are tried on larger animals and finally on man.

Cancerous mice are injected with chemicals designed to destroy diseased cells. Later their tissues are transplanted to healthy mice.

If the healthy animals fail to contract the disease, the compound

A trio of pampered mice at Sloan-Kettering Institute is weighed on laboratory scales to check their health. As "guinea-pigs" in cancer research with chemicals, they are probably the best cared-for mice anywhere in the world.

undergoes further exhaustive tests in the hope that it may be the one which will destroy cancer cells as completely as penicillin destroys bacteria.

In between these two steps, live tissue from both normal and cancerous mice is grown in glass tubes in a fluid that simulates the natural blood environment of the tissue. Then one of the 15,000 chemical compounds awaiting trial at the Institute is added to the tissue.

After 24 hours, the cancer tissue is removed from the tube and planted in susceptible mice, which are constantly checked for subsequent development or non-development of the disease.

Scourrying about in their metal cages stacked ceiling-high on the Institute's 12th floor, these mice live out their short life-span in a highly controlled environment. Their weight is checked daily; their quarters are air-conditioned; their diet is sunflower seeds, grain seeds, and a special laboratory pellet made of grain and fats and loaded with vitamins.

The mice themselves are of pedigree stock, "a special variety," explains Dr. Charles B. Stock, chief of Chemotherapy research at the Institute, "inbred for many generations and particularly susceptible to leukemia."

Imported at the rate of 2500 a week from specialized breeding farms in New York state, their life span at the laboratory is about two or three weeks. Their inbreeding makes them as sensitive to changes of environment as it does to cancer itself.

In the fight against cancer, one of these 35-cent mice munching a sunflower seed may turn out to be man's best friend.

A live laboratory in Chemotherapy experiments, this mouse has a cancer tumor on left side almost as big as he is.

Everybody Has to Get Into the Act

With their mother headed for a New York modeling job, these six children decide they're going to learn modeling, too. Mrs. Thomas Moran, 26, of Cleveland, O., was called to New York by a famous model agency, but waited until they said to bring the family. With Mary, six months, on her lap, she coaches Terry, 3; Patrick, 4; Dennis, 6; Jackie, 7, and Tommy, 8, in the fundamentals of modeling.

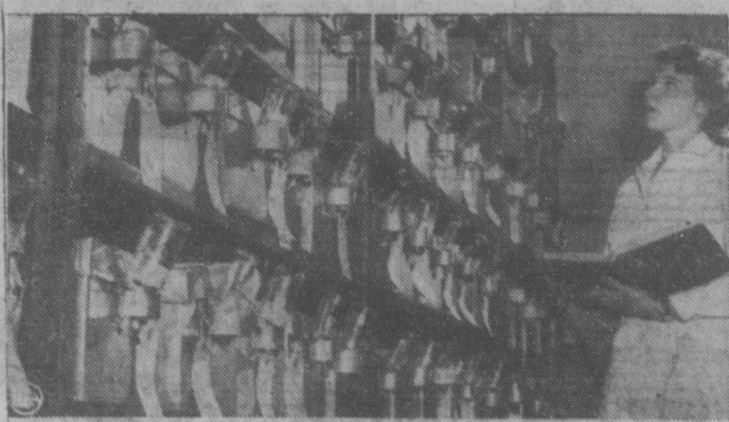

THE TOPPINGS MEET THEIR NEW SISTER-IN-LAW

The complacent-looking mouse in the life-size photo above is an expendable but vital key to the search for a chemical cure for cancer at New York's new Sloan-Kettering Institute. He is being injected with one of the 15,000 chemical compounds awaiting trial at the Institute's laboratories.

In ceiling-high tiers of metal cages, the Sloan-Kettering mice live a plush, air-conditioned life. Here Technician Doris Rosenthal (right) checks her books against the records of experiments clipped to the cage of each mouse.

HIGH COST OF WAR, PEACE

Russia Reported Ready to Incorporate Romania--Marshall Plan Give-up Sign

U. S. FOREIGN AID in the past eight years—estimated at slightly upwards of $80,000,000,000—amounts to around $741 for every man, woman and child of the U. S. 145,000,000 population. The map shows part of this: amounts to be divided among European nations the first year under supervision of European Recovery Administrator Hoffman. Iceland, also included, will receive $10.9 millions. Two of the 16 aid nations—Portugal and Switzerland—will receive nothing the first year. Reports that Russia may incorporate Romania (in black) as the 17th Soviet Republic are believed an indication Moscow is giving up on scuttling plan. (International)

Alert Consumer Knows How, What, When, Where To Buy

By JOHN L. SPRINGER
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — Most business prophets say the high cost of living will be with us for a long time. Some think more inflation may be on the way.

"Making ends meet" will continue indefinitely as a major problem for millions of Americans.

Shopping experts say low income groups can offset high prices partially if they take care on how, what, when and where they buy. An alert consumer may save up to 25 percent on purchases by following a few simple rules.

A survey of spokesmen for leading retailing groups, government agencies and business research organizations suggests it is possible for the average family to buy ordinary necessities at lower than the customary prices. But, these men warn, you may have to spend its equivalent in time, thought or work.

Here are some of the general ways experts say you can cut costs: Carefully compare values of competing products and competing stores. Some stores feature one brand of products at prices much lower than their competitors. Many stores which are high-priced on most things may feature some at cost or less, just to lure new trade. You will have to seek out the facts for yourself, remembering that a store's reputation for backing its claims — and for making good on items that prove unsatisfactory — also is important.

Study specifications and standards. Sometimes high-priced clothes are made to look good, but wear poorly.

Plan purchases in advance so that you can act when special sales come. For example, prices of clothing at end-of-season clearances may be as much as 50 percent lower.

Buy in quantity the goods you use often. Large sizes of most food-stuffs are often cheaper per ounce of contents than small sizes.

Do things yourself. In many cases you may be paying for services you can perform yourself. For instance, unpainted furniture which you can finish at home usually is much cheaper than the same article already painted.

Make things yourself. Often clothes, baked goods and other foods that need processing can be made at home at much less than their "processed" prices at the store.

The National Better Business Bureau warns price-conscious shoppers to beware of rackets, however. It says that chummy merchandise bought for a small amount may prove more costly than quality goods for which you pay more. It urges you to suspect:

"Wholesale houses" with retail showrooms. The Better Business Bureau says "it is impracticable to maintain a policy of selling retail at wholesale prices."

"Fake 'Selling Out' or 'Going Out of Business' sales.

"Money Back Guarantee." A guarantee, the bureau says, is only as good as the person who gives it and the promises of a swindler are worthless.

"Muddled goods. Peddlers often give this description to all kinds of trashy stuff which seems cheap but really is greatly over-priced.

CLAIM FCC GAVE PERMITS TO RED

Representative Charges Commission 'Cooperates' With Communists

BY FRED J. ZUSY
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, May 7—Chairman Wayne Coy of the Communications Commission said he will study today charges made by Rep. Hebert (D-La.) that the agency granted five radio station licenses recently to a Toledo, Ohio attorney Hebert said was active in Communist front organizations.

Hebert told the house yesterday that companies controlled by Edward Lamb of Toledo received construction permits in March for FM stations in Erie, Pa., and Mansfield and Springfield, O., and for television outlets in Erie and Columbus, O.

Cooperate With Reds
He said the commission, in an "unprecedented display of cooperation," granted these permits in record time to "a man drenched in Communist writings, associations and affiliations" while the agency "keeps untainted, red-blooded Americans cooling their heels waiting for decisions."

Lamb, in Toledo, said he has "denied being a Communist many times" and declared Hebert's attack continued a "sneak" campaign against him by The Mansfield News-Journal.

Hebert asserted that files of the un-American activities committee in the house showed that Lamb was tied up with more than half a dozen Communist front groups.

He said that S. A. Horvitz, publisher of the Mansfield paper, testified before the commission that he was "convinced that Mr. Lamb is a Communist." This testimony, Hebert said, should have alerted the commission.

Coy said the commission called in the FBI in an attempt to check Horvitz' statement.

"We sought to find such information or source of information that Lamb was a Communist, but failed to do so," he said. Coy said his agency did not check Lamb with the un-American activities committee.

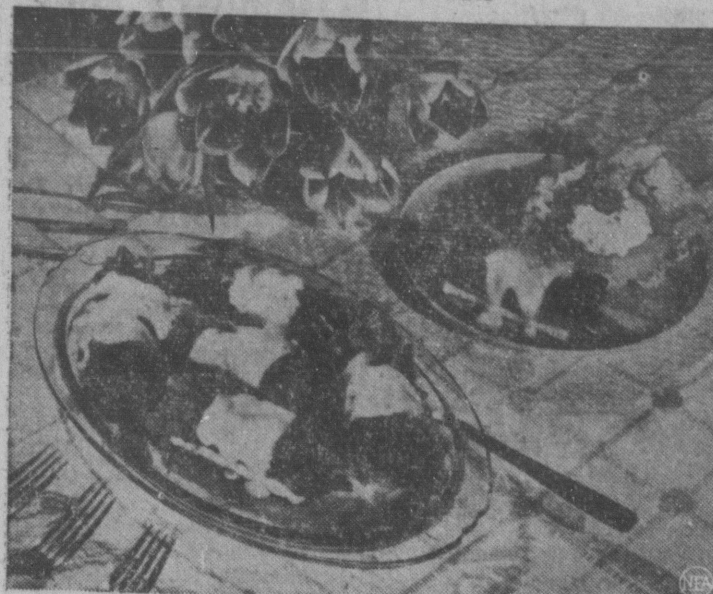

Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) told a reporter he believes the house committee was "derelict in its duty" for not bringing its reported information on Lamb to the attention of the commission. Huber said he "assumed" this committee had been screening applicants for radio licenses.

Huber said that he and several other members of the house intended to check the transcripts of the commission's hearings preceding the license grants.

He said editorial in the Mansfield paper concerning the hearings "indicated to me that the commission might have given further consideration before making the grants to Lamb."

Bundles of fresh asparagus wrapped in chipped beef with a rich cheese sauce make a nutritious one-dish meal.

MAKE the most of the fresh asparagus season while it lasts. With this special new combination recipe, baked and served on the same glass platter, you have a meal in a dish with minimum of labor. It's the kind of meal everyone likes—and it's full of nutrition.

Special Asparagus Platter (Serves 6)
Three slices toast, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 pound asparagus, cooked tard, 1 pound asparagus, cooked 6 slices chipped beef, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup milk, 1 cup grated sharp cheese, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Cut toast slices in half. Cream two tablespoons butter with the mustard and spread on toast. Arrange toast on a heat-resistant glass utility platter. Divide asparagus into six bunches; wrap each bunch in a slice of chipped beef. Place a beef-wrapped bundle of asparagus on each piece of toast. Melt one tablespoon butter in top of double boiler. Stir in flour, salt, pepper and then milk. Cook over boiling water until mixture is thick and no starchy taste remains, or for about 15 minutes. Remove sauce from heat. Add grated cheese and stir until cheese is melted. Stir in Worcestershire sauce. Pour cheese sauce over asparagus on platter. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes.

Here's another wonderful asparagus combination, using the same cheese sauce as in the above recipe. Arrange a thick layer of cooked asparagus in a glass utility dish. Cover with thick slices of cooked chicken and boiled ham. Pour the cheese sauce over all and dust top with finely grated Italian-type cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

DEPARTMENT OF CONJECTURE

The Salem Night Relays are over once again and once again Fred Cope and Salem have scored another mark for sound and efficient handling of a sporting event.

It's largely through the work of Cope, track coach and meet manager, that Salem year-in and year-out is awarded the district Class A meet. This year, because of Fred's excellent work on such events, the Class B meet is again being brought back to Salem along with the "A" affair.

Salem's Night Relays once rated among the best meets in the country and certainly well at the top of Ohio's scholastic track ventures.

Track isn't new, never has been and probably never will be a great spectator sport. But it draws its share of enthusiastic supporters, who in every case turn out to be as rabid and excited as those of any of the other events.

Track's greatest asset to a high school appears to be the considerable opportunity it gives a host of would-be athletes, who otherwise would never make a variety or reserve outfit in any other sport, to get out and make a bid, improve themselves physically. Few track squads are ever cut as in other sports.

As far as the fans are concerned, track probably could be passed by without any serious loss. But fortunately, not all sports are geared to entertain just fans alone.

But one of the most advantageous aspects of track—and especially an event like the Night Relays—is to a high school's sport reputation in that it can spread the name of the community throughout the state with good effects.

Consequently any improvements that can be made in the annual event are worthwhile and productive for Salem as a whole. Now is the time to start planning for next year's event, as Cope well knows.

It has been suggested, and ably so, by Cope that after Salem moves its football lights to the back of the stands, an improvement long-needed, the track should be widened in front of the stands to become a 120-yard eight-lane runway.

Such an improvement would facilitate the enlargement of the Salem meet, for then many more schools could participate without the cumbersome and time-consuming preliminaries now necessary.

The proposal will be considered by the Athletic Board of Control just as soon as final plans are completed on when the lights are to be moved. In all probability the light-moving will not take place until the summer of 1949 when more funds and equipment are available.

DEPARTMENT OF ADDITIONS

Salem sports fans, always interested in new projects and new means of entertainment, will have quite an addition this season in Scott Chisholm's newest undertaking, the Salem Athletic club baseball league.

The quality of play in the eight-team loop, at least for this first season, may not be the best ever seen here, but the quantity of play and the convenience of watching the games will be a great improvement on past years.

For Scott's new league, while encompassing a lot of "old timers", is offering an opportunity to play organized ball on a far broader scope than ever before.

Some of the teams involved are made up largely of younger players and will give them experience long lacking here. In the past a player was necessarily limited in his chances to play, unless he sought elsewhere.

Chisholm's league deserves some fan support, for with that it will grow and expand to include many more youngsters.

New Massillon Coach Takes Over

New Massillon Football Coach, Charles V. Mather (right), is congratulated on his appointment by L. J. Smith, superintendent of Massillon schools. Mather, whose Hamilton team won nine, lost one last season, succeeds William G. Houghton, who went to Akron university as head coach. Mather is Massillon's fourth coach since Paul Brown left in 1941.

Mather's Switch To North Ohio Raises Question On Coaching For All-Star Tilt

By JOHN BARRINGTON
INS Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, May 7—The appointment of Hamilton's Chuck Mather as head football coach and athletic director of Massillon High school completes the first major coaching switch of the year in state scholastic ranks.

Previously, Bud Houghton had vacated the Massillon coaching job to take over as head grid mentor at Akron university.

Massillon officials made a complete job of "raiding" the Hamilton coaching staff. Along with Mather went Basketball Coach Paul Shorfer.

Mather drew the coaching "plum" of them all in Ohio High school circles. Massillon's long football tradition plus memories of the national fame gained during the Paul Brown regime have made the Tiger post the epitome of High school success.

In naming Mather, Massillon officials stepped outside the "family," probably because there are so many outstanding Massillon athletes now in the coaching field that it became necessary to select an outsider to avoid favoritism.

Mather reportedly was the leading candidate for the position for many weeks. Massillon head men gave his handwork a close scrutiny when they attended Hamilton's spring grid game with Toledo Waite two weeks ago.

In 1947, Mather lost only one game—an upset by Springfield. He was named by the State High School Football Coaches' association to direct the Southern team in the annual mid-summer all-star game at Canton.

The Mather appointment poses the question of whether he will carry out that assignment now that he is actually in the "enemy" northern camp. Harry Strobel, coach of undefeated Barberton in 1947, is to coach the northern team.

Mather's desertion of the southern Ohio scene also raises doubt as to the future of the new conference formed by Hamilton, Middletown, Suningfield and Portsmouth as a running mate to the seven-team northern Ohio "super" league.

The Hamilton mentor was one of the chief factors in organization of the loop. Unless Hamilton appoints a successor equally interested in the infant organization, it is certain to suffer.

Manager Boudreau Boots Two In One Inning, Gets Spiked Shin

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 7—Cleveland's Indians, whose six straight victories were the sensation of the league a week ago, were on the to-bogged today with four straight losses.

The Redskins' sudden collapse has even involved Manager Lou Boudreau, their bulwark on defense. There are no records to indicate when Boudreau last made two errors in one inning, but he did that yesterday as the Indians lost a ball game—and first place—to the Philadelphia Athletics, 8 to 5.

The usually fancy-fielding shortstop gave the Athletics three unearned runs and both of the ground balls he booted could have initiated double play action.

The league's leading hitter also failed to hit the ball out of the infield in three official trips to the plate. On the other appearance, he walked.

It was a bad day all around for the Tribe pilot, for he came to the ball park with a tummy ache and left it some three hours later with a spiked shinbone. He was spiked by Ferris Fain when he attempted to pick the A's first sack-off second base in the third inning.

Bob Feller also failed the Indians on the mound, being charged with five earned runs on eight hits in three and one-third innings. He had difficulty finding the plate, walking five, one of which was intentional. It was his second defeat against as many victories.

After Feller's departure, the Indians were given surprisingly effective relief twirling by Steve Gromek and Lyman Lunde. Gromek pitched to nine men and in a fraction more than two innings and gave up one hit. Lunde retired the opposition with one hit in each of the seventh and eighth rounds.

Home runs by Ken Keltner and Joe Gordon were the only Indian bright spots in an otherwise dismal day. Keltner connected for a grand slam homer in the second inning, his sixth of the season. Gordon slammed his round trip in the sixth, indicating he may be pulling out of a protracted batting slump.

Dick Fowler kept eight Cleveland hits well scattered and aside from the two homers did not permit an extra base hit.

BUCKEYE CLINIC OPENS WITH LEAHY

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, May 7—Ohio State university offered its 17th annual football clinic for the Buckeye High school coaches today, and between 500 and 600 of the scholastic mentors were scheduled to attend.

Frank Leahy, Notre Dame coach, was to open the program at 9 a. m. with an outline of the "T" offense. The Irish coach, arriving at 7:30 a. m. was to fly back to South Bend in time for this afternoon's grid practice.

Coach Wesley Fesler and his entire Ohio State staff were to take over for sessions during the afternoon and Saturday morning, with a banquet tonight sandwiched in. George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues, will speak.

Saturday's program, with the annual clinic intrasquad game at 3 p. m. as the feature, is a well-rounded one. During the morning the Ohio State tennis team meets Purdue in a conference clash.

In the afternoon the Buck track team, rated the best all-around squad in Ohio history, tangles with Wisconsin, while the baseball team has a date with Indiana.

Ohio's High School Coaches association will name new officers at the weekend clinic.

Pro Cagers To Reorganize

COLUMBUS, May 7—The All-American Professional Basketball league will hold a reorganization meeting next Sunday at Wheeling, W. Va., with a major problem being the franchise formerly held by the Columbus Mariners. The Mariners dropped their franchise yesterday. Dayton and Springfield, O., appeared probable sites for the franchise.

Miss Robinson's parting words were: "G'bye. Hit a home run."

Whereupon Bobby Forbes stepped to the plate and smacked a line drive over the centerfielder's head for the required four bases.

Win Impressively Over Bobby Feller To Boost Themselves Into First

BY JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Give a cheer for 35-year-old Connie Mack and his surprising Philadelphia Athletics. Five straight wins, climaxed by a kayo decision over Bobby Feller, have boosted the A's into the American league lead.

Picked for the second division with the White Sox, Browns and Senators, the Athletics begin to look like serious contenders for a higher spot.

Wakefield May Be On Trading Block

(By Associated Press)

DETROIT, May 7—Dick Wakefield, who cost the Detroit Tigers $52,000 in bonus money in 1941 and is hitting an insignificant .074 for them in 1948, may be on the trading block.

But the Tigers branded as "preposterous" today any idea Dick may be sold for a $150,000 waiver price.

Wakefield currently is riding the bench with two hits in 27 times at bat this season. Hitless in his last 25 times up.

The Detroit Free Press said today the Tigers have asked waivers on the 27-year-old outfielder.

Wakefield came off the University of Michigan campus to sign a Tiger contract in 1941 for $50,000 and a new automobile.

He played the last 55 games of that season for Winston-Salem, hitting an even .300. The following year, playing for Beaumont, Wakefield led the Texas league at bat with an average of .345.

For the Tigers in 1943 he batted .316. Then followed a term in the Navy, but he was released in July of 1944, returning to Detroit and hitting a terrific .355 for the last 78 games.

Wakefield went back to the Navy in 1945 and after his discharge in 1946 he hit .268, last season .283.

TEAM MANAGERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Two new entries, Washingtonville and the Recreation, swelled the city softball league to 14 teams Thursday. Joe Kelley reported today.

Managers of all 14 squads will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Memorial building to iron out the first week's schedule and other problems.

It is believed one 14-team league will be operated this season. However, the last-minute entry of two more teams would permit two eight-team loops.

Stymie Keeps His Hoofs On Ground

NEW YORK — When he is not running toward earning his first million, Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Stymie is a horse that likes to keep his feet on the ground. Hirsch Jacobs removed the wooden flooring from the Jamaica stall of the biggest money-winner of all time, and mixed clay with the earth.

"Old Stymie likes to dig his toes in the dirt," explains the equally famous trainer.

Atlantic City—Herman McGray, 150, Philadelphia, outpointed Leroy Coleman, 153, Lodi, N. J., 8.

The Nation Today

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, May 7.—One of the cornerstones of our foreign policy is better world trade all around. The Truman administration says the heart of our policy on trading with other nations is the Reciprocal Trade Agreements act.

That act now is the center of a fight in congress, with some Republicans leading the attack.

Simply, the act means this: We have some goods we want to sell abroad and other countries have goods they want to sell us.

So—

1. We agree to lower our tariffs on some but not all goods of a foreign nation imported here.

2. That nation in turn agrees to lower its tariffs on certain items it imports from us.

We have trade agreements like that now with 41 countries. Congress doesn't have anything to do with approving those agreements.

THE AGREEMENTS, under the powers the act gives the President, are carried out this way:

Here's a country with which our government's foreign trade experts think we can work out some deals for better trade.

Various committees go to work. These committees are made up of representatives of government departments which have an interest in foreign trade. For example: The State, Commerce and Agriculture departments and the U. S. Tariff commission.

Those committees investigate and analyze whatever information they can find. They hold public hearings so that people with an interest in the deal can speak for or against it. (A list of all the items on which tariffs may be lowered is made public.)

When the committees have finished their work, they tell the President. Then a group of people from the departments listed above starts talking with representatives of the other nation to work out agreements.

When all that work is done, and the agreements made, we lower our tariffs on the specified items. The other country lowers its tariffs.

As noted, congress doesn't have a hand in this. By passing the trade agreements act in the first place, it handed over the authority to make

LIMA LADY LOSES 88½ POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Mrs. C. M. Wright, 124 West 5th St., loses weight without dieting.

"I have tried many reducing preparations but nothing ever helped me until I tried Rennie," writes Mrs. Wright. "Since I started taking Rennie I have eaten as much as I wanted and anything that I wanted yet I have lost weight and feel much better than I have in ten years. Before taking Rennie my excess weight kept me tired out all of the time. I am so happy that I tried Rennie because the other products that I have tried didn't help me at all. My druggist recommended Rennie to me and I wouldn't be without it."

Rennie is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple, go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennie. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough un-sweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle, take just two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennie, no starvation diet, no printed diet list to buy, no expensive vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry.

the agreements to the government. A Democratic-controlled congress first passed this act in 1934 when world trade was in bad shape. Every few years congress has renewed the act for a few years more. It's done that four times.

The last time it voted to keep the act going was in 1945, when the Democrats still controlled congress.

THE ACT then was extended another three years. Those three years are now up and the act dies June 12 unless congress again renews it. But now the Republicans control congress.

And some Republicans never have liked the act. Republicans, as a party, traditionally have been for high tariffs to protect American businessmen and farmers from foreign competition in this country.

Some Republicans argue now that a number of American businessmen have been hurt by the competition from foreign goods allowed in here under the Trade Agreements act.

Congress probably will renew the act another year, at least. But how? Just as it stands? Or will the Republican enemies of the act insist on making changes in it? If so, will those changes weaken the act?

Some of the Republicans are talking of making changes like these:

1. Letting congress have the right to approve or disapprove any agreements made. Would this slow up the whole machinery and cripple the act?

2. Letting a business man sue in court if he can show he's been injured by the act. He can't do that now. But he can appeal to the government to make a new agreement that won't injure him.

President Truman has asked congress to continue the act another three years. And the fight in congress already has begun.

One of the chief critics of the act is Rep. Gearhart, California Republican. He's chairman of a house ways and means subcommittee.

That subcommittee has begun hearings—behind closed doors—for people and groups who are for or against the act. The members of
